

Website. Chatbot. Lead engine. One sprint. You own all three.

SalesGency, in partnership with Unleash Your Sales Greatness, will take this live mockup to production, place a quote chatbot on it, and install a lead engine that writes every inquiry into your CRM. Thirty days. Ten thousand dollars. The site, the bot, and the pipeline transfer to ABWAB.

$10,000

Website $7,000 · Quote chatbot and lead engine $3,000 · 30-day sprint included. Faster 14-day delivery available for $2,500 more.

WHAT YOU ARE BUYING

A commercial website with a quoting desk that never closes.

ABWAB already has the catalog. What is missing is a public house for it, a chatbot that can take a first brief, and a lead engine that makes sure no inquiry dies in an inbox. This engagement delivers those three pieces as one system, then hands you the keys.

Website

$7,000

Production site from this mockup: collections, product pages, atelier, about, quote. Three revisions. Your domain. Your backend.

Quote chatbot

Included in $3,000

Catalog-trained concierge on the site. It specifies the project, issues a preliminary estimate, and files the brief.

Lead engine

Included in $3,000

Routing, CRM write-back, daily reports, and an auto-responder so every inbound is answered and owned.

PREPARED FOR

ABWAB & More

Luxury millwork — doors, kitchens, dressing rooms. This live mockup is the sample of work you would pay to finish, host, and keep. It is not a concept deck. It is the house, already standing.

PART ONE · WEBSITE · $7,000

A production catalog on your name.

Seven thousand dollars covers the site through launch: finish this mockup, three design revisions, remaining content, two to three meetings, and transfer onto ABWAB's domain and infrastructure.

01 Ship the site from this mockup

Collections, product pages, atelier, about, and the quote flow go from sample to production. What you are clicking today is the foundation, not a throwaway.

02 Three design revisions

Kickoff, content lock, and pre-launch. Each review is scheduled. Your catalog remains the visual source of truth.

03 Connect the rest of the catalog

Photography, finishes, kitchens, dressing rooms, and copy you provide are placed into the live site so it reads as a working showroom, not a teaser.

04 Launch on your domain

Hosting, repository, and environment transfer to you. After launch, ABWAB owns the property. We do not keep the keys.

05 Two to three working sessions

Kickoff, build review, and launch. Short meetings with the live site on screen so decisions are concrete.

Capture the quote. File it. Follow it.

Three thousand dollars installs the commercial layer on top of the site: a quote chatbot visitors can talk to, and a lead engine that qualifies, logs, reports, and replies. The millwork is the product. This is the desk that takes the order.

Quote chatbot

An on-site concierge trained on your doors, kitchens, and dressing rooms. It gathers project detail and prepares a preliminary estimate before a person ever picks up the phone.

Lead engine

Every chat, form, and inbound inquiry is qualified, scored, and routed to the right owner with a next action attached.

CRM write-back

Names, rooms, finishes, and conversation context land in the system you already use. We wire into your CRM. We do not replace it.

Daily reports and first reply

A morning digest of new inquiries, estimates issued, and threads still waiting. An auto-responder so no architect or homeowner sits in silence.

MODEL ACCESS

The chatbot runs on ABWAB's models. We stand it up with you.

You bring the model account — your vendor, your keys, your usage bill. SalesGency does not resell or host the model. We help you obtain access, place credentials in your environment, and connect the chatbot and lead engine so the whole system lives in your stack. Model spend is billed by your provider, not by us.

$10,000. Payable by ABWAB & More.

Website build$7,000

Production site from this mockup, three design revisions, remaining content, two to three meetings, domain and backend transfer

Quote chatbot and lead engine$3,000

On-site quote chatbot, inbound routing, CRM write-back, daily reports, auto-responder — on your models

30-day sprintIncluded

Standard delivery from signed agreement to launch. Included in the figure above.

Total due from ABWAB & More$10,000

OPTIONAL

14-day sprint+$2,500

Same website, chatbot, and lead engine, delivered in two weeks instead of thirty days.

Fourteen-day option brings the total to $12,500.

Fifty percent is due on signed agreement. Fifty percent is due on delivery. Three design revisions are included. Hosting after transfer sits on your account. There is no monthly platform fee in this number. Client data, credentials, and model access remain yours.

HOW THE SPRINT RUNS

Thirty days. Three gates. Then it is yours.

Signed agreement to live site in 30 days. The 14-day option is the same sequence, compressed.

WEEK 1

Kickoff

Domain, CRM, model access, content, first design revision. We map where quotes currently stall.

WEEKS 2-3

Build

Remaining catalog, second revision, quote chatbot live against real scenarios, lead engine writing into your CRM.

WEEK 4

Launch

Third revision, site on your domain, auto-responder on, ownership documented, keys transferred.

DECISION

Approve $10,000 and we start the sprint.

Walk the mockup. If this is the catalog ABWAB wants public, sign the agreement. Fifty percent to begin. In thirty days the website, the quote chatbot, and the lead engine are live on your domain and in your name.
